

K. OF C. AT CAIRO FOR INITIATION

Paducah Degree Team Puts on Second Degree

Grand Knight J. T. Donovan Responds To The Toast "Our Sister Councils."

FINE PROGRAM AND BANQUET

Cairo, Ill., June 10.—Yesterday was a notable day in the history of Cairo Council No. 1027, Knights of Columbus. Three hundred esteemed knights from various different lodges were present to attend the initiation of 50 new members from Cairo and nearby towns.

Special trains were run from Paducah, Ky., and Jackson, Tenn., both bringing large delegations. Other cities represented were Murphysboro, Louisville and New Orleans.

The exercises commenced at 9 o'clock yesterday morning when the knights assembled at the Cairo hall and did not conclude until a late hour last night with an elaborate banquet.

At 10 o'clock the knights and ladies assembled and marched from the hall to St. Patrick's church where high mass was celebrated. State Chaplain Rev. William J. Healey, preached a sermon appropriate to the knights.

Following the services at the church the members dined for dinner, many dining at the Halliday while others were guests of local knights at their homes. At 1:30 o'clock the knights and the candidates assembled at the K. M. K. C. hall where the initiation was held.

The degree work of the knights of Columbus which is said to be very beautiful and impressive occupied the remainder of the day up till 8 o'clock when an adjournment was taken to the Armory hall.

The first degree was conferred by the Cairo council, the second by the Paducah council, No. 1055 and the third by Maurice J. Joyce and staff of East St. Louis.

The banquet was the crowning feature of the day's exercises and was attended by over 300 knights. The menu was most elaborate and the affair greatly enjoyed. Dr. J. T. Walsh acted as toastmaster, acquitting himself in a most creditable manner. Toasts were responded to as follows:

"Our Sister Councils", J. T. Donovan, G. K., Paducah, Ky.

"Knighthood in Flower", Rev. W. J. Healey, Elmhurst, Ill.

"Our Order", Dr. Charles Molz, D. D. S. K., Murphysboro, Ill.

"Ideals of a True Knight", Rev. D. D. Miller, New Burnside, Ill.

"Knighthood and Patriotism", Hon. M. V. Joyce, D. D. S. K., East St. Louis, Ill.

Col. Bingham, County Attorney, Will be Appointed County Judge by Governor and J. J. Fitzgerald Police Judge

JUDGE WILSON MUST RETIRE.

Louisville, Ky., June 10.—(Special)—Although it will be several weeks before the announcement is made, it is tipped on the streets of the city that City Attorney A. E. Richards, who returned Saturday from a long consultation in Frankfort, will be appointed mayor by Governor Beckham. What other changes will be made in city offices, is not known, but the detective department, it is said, will remain unchanged, because of the fidelity of the detectives to the state administration.

County Judge Charles Wilson will be let out, and County Attorney Bingham will be named to succeed him. If Colonel Bingham desires the place, otherwise he will be appointed to his present position. In case Colonel Bingham becomes county judge, Robert Page, his first assistant, will succeed him as county attorney. Fulton Mill Destroyed.

Fulton, Ky., June 10.—(Special)—Fire of unknown origin on the third floor destroyed the mill of the J. T. Burton Milling company Sunday morning at 3 o'clock. The fire department did noble work, and despite the great headway of the fire it was confined to the mill. The building was of sheet iron and destroyed to the ground. Mr. Burton is in Buffalo and future plans are unknown, but the presumption is that it will be rebuilt. In the meantime its old plant may be put in operation. The plant was the only flour mill in Fulton and did a thriving business employing 25 people. It is thought insurance was carried. All the hooks of the firm were saved.

CONGESTION ALMOST ENDS THE CAREER OF EPPERSON BOY.

Unconscious, naked and lying in the hot sun, Henry Parker, a 14-year-old former boy of the Epperson section of McCracken county, was found by boys Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock on the banks of the Tennessee river. He had been overcome by congestion, and but for the timely discovery would doubtless have died. He was taken into the shade, where Dr. Carl M. Sears, of Mechanicsburg, attended him. He did not recover his senses until late last night. The youth, directly after eating a hearty dinner, started rowing in the Tennessee river. He "pulled" a race with companions up the river, and returning discarded his clothes and dived into the water to swim. He remembered becoming suddenly ill and crawling out.

Yesterday

LEAVES FAMILY IN THE CITY.

Seized by an attack of heart disease while taking a bath, William A. Havis, one of the oldest printers in the state, passed away Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock in the county jail inclosure before medical aid could be secured. He was about 60 years old, and came originally from the state of Ohio. He worked in Paducah for years, being one of the compositors on The Sun when the paper was in its infancy. He met with an accident several years ago, which disabled him for life. His ankle was broken and never healed, forcing the aged printer to hobble about on crutches. He was serving 30 days in jail for drunkenness.

He became ill of bowel trouble several days ago, and yesterday his son came to the jail to visit his father, finding him ill. He suggested that he be released to go home, where better treatment could be secured. Jailor Baker acquiesced, and sent for a cab and doctor. At the time Havis was in the jail inclosure taking a bath. Suddenly he reeled and Henry Skelton, colored, caught him. He summoned Jailer Baker, but Havis had died.

The body was taken to the Mattil-Effinger undertaking parlors, and prepared for burial. This morning it was removed to his home on North Eighth street below the Smith & Scott tobacco factory.

Coroner Baker held an inquest in the Mattil-Effinger undertaking parlors this morning which resulted in a verdict of heart failure. The jurors were: Harry C. Brazleton, S. R. Hunt, James A. Glauber, J. J. Thomason, G. A. Ross and John T. Hughes.

Havis leaves a wife, one daughter and several sons.

The funeral will be conducted tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the residence. The burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

L. O. O. F. MEMORIAL SUNDAY EVENING

Memorial services were held by the Odd Fellows at the Broadway Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The musical features made the program attractive and the address by the Rev. J. R. Henry of the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church along the line of fraternalism was a fine effort. The Rev. W. T. Bolling addressed the audience in the same vein. A quartet composed of Mrs. Samuel Hubbard, Miss Carrie Hom, Mr. Will V. Green and Mr. John U. Robinson, sang an anthem and Mr. Richard Scott sang a solo. Mrs. Samuel Hubbard played. The names of the Odd Fellows who had died within the year were read by Mr. W. H. Patterson.

New York, June 10.—The quarantine against passengers arriving from Havana went into operation and as a result 31 steerage passengers on the steamer Monterey were sent to the detention hospital for observation. All the suspects were found to have abnormally high temperature when they were examined by the health officer. If no serious disease develops they will be released.

Sad Ending To Preparation For Marriage of Miss Elizabeth Burnett.

A FORMER PADUCAHAN KILLED

News of the death of Mr. Robert Horner, of Louisville, whose marriage to Miss Elizabeth Burnett, the oldest daughter of Mr. Henry Burnett, formerly of Paducah, was to have taken place tomorrow, was received in the city yesterday afternoon and caused universal sorrow. The invitations to the wedding were recalled last week, on account of Mr. Horner's illness, but it was not thought the illness would prove fatal, and hopes of an ultimate recovery were held until Sunday morning. The wedding was then solemnized at the bedside. Mr. Horner was a former Philadelphia, and managed a large cement plant in Louisville in which his father was the principal owner. He was prominent socially and in the business world of Louisville, and his death, under the circumstances, is sad. Death was due to blood poisoning, following an operation for the removal of a carbuncle. Mr. and Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, left yesterday for Louisville to attend the funeral, and Miss Adine Morton will leave today. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. Fred Vint.

News of the death of Mr. Fred Vint reached the city this morning in a telegram from the young man's parents, to Mrs. John Watts, an aunt, wife of the well known steamboat captain. The telegram was brief and gave no details. It read: "Fred was killed in a railroad accident Saturday."

Fred Vint was born and reared in Paducah, and went into railroad service working in the freight offices of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis line until three years ago, when he went to Los Angeles, Cal., with his parents to reside. He was at the time of his death cashier in the freight offices of the Union Pacific road a responsible position. He was a young man of ability and had countless friends in Paducah. He survived by his parents and one brother, Mr. Robert Vint, the well known operator now in Cairo.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES TO MEET TONIGHT

Contracts For Two New Buildings Will be Let, But Successor to President List Can Not be Chosen Until July

ONE MAN DECLINES HONOR.

Frank C. Hoone, defeated for school trustee from the Third ward by S. H. Winstead in the Democratic primary last month, probably will be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of President List. The seat was offered to Mr. Winstead, the nominee, but he declined to accept the temporary election. President List will resign at the adjourned meeting of the board tonight, but his successor will not be elected until the regular meeting in July. Vice-President Potter will act as president until the vacancy is filled. There are no definite indications of President List's successor in the chair, but Trustees Potter and Kelley are candidates.

Trustee Kelley will make a motion tonight to grade the salaries of the colored teachers. At present they receive each $35 straight. Trustee Kelley thinks that an increase to $40 for the higher grades would stimulate the teachers to do better work. The teachers in the white schools are graded according to their work. With but one or two exceptions, the old corps of colored teachers will be re-elected tonight. The contracts for two new school buildings are ready and will be signed this evening.

CABRERA KILLED LATEST REPORT

Impossible to Confirm it But Mexican Capital Believes it and is Preparing For Any Emergency

WASHINGTON HEARS NOTHING.

Mexico City, June 10.—There is no confirmation yet of reported assassination of President Cabrera Sotomayor at Guatemala City. Good reason to believe, however the report to be true.

Mexico City, June 10.—A private dispatch received here states that President Cabrera, of Guatemala, was assassinated. The news cannot be confirmed.

Troops Preserve Order.

Guatemala City, Saturday, June 10.—Large bodies of troops are in the city and extraordinary precautions are taken each night to maintain order. The fact that a majority of those sentenced to death or imprisonment for alleged participation in the attempts to assassinate President Cabrera belong to the highest society has caused considerable depression in business. The outcome of their plea for a revision of sentence rests with the court of appeals. The time when a decision may be expected is not known.

CONSERVING OUR OWN RESOURCES

President Roosevelt Announces Principle Behind Some of His Policies

STRIKES HOME TO THE PEOPLE

Forests, Fuel, Mineral Wealth and Grazing Land Being Wasted By Selfish Interests.

OUR INTERNAL WATERWAYS

Norfolk Va., June 10.—At the National Editor's association held here today President Roosevelt delivered an address, in part as follows:

"The conservation of our natural resources and their proper use constitute the fundamental problem which underlies almost every other problem of our national life. Unless we maintain an adequate material basis for our civilization, we can not maintain the institutions in which we take so great and so just a pride; and to waste and destroy our natural resources means to undermine this material basis. During the last five years efforts have been made in several new directions in the government service to get our people to look ahead, to exercise foresight, and to substitute a planned and orderly development of our resources in the place of a haphazard striving for immediate profit. The effort has been made through several agencies.

"In 1902 the reclamation service began to develop the larger opportunities of the western half of our country for irrigation. The work includes all the state from the great plains through the Rock mountains to the Pacific slope. It has been conducted with the clear and definite purpose of using the valuable water resources of the public land for the greatest good for the greatest number in the long run; in other words, for the purpose of putting upon the land permanent home makers who will use and develop it for themselves and for their children and children's children.

"The public lands of the United States should be utilized in similar fashion. Our present public land laws were passed when there was a vast surplus of vacant public land. The chief desire was to secure settlers thereon, and comparatively slight attention was paid as to exactly how the lands were disposed of in detail.

In consequence, lax execution of the laws became the rule both in the land office and in the public mind, and land frauds were common and little noted. This was especially true when a system originally designed for the fertile and well-watered regions of the middle west was applied to the dryer regions of the great plains and to the mountains and the Pacific coast. In these regions the system lent itself to fraud, and much land passed out of the hands of the government without passing into the hands of the homemaker. The department of the interior and the department of justice joined in prosecuting the offenders against the law; but both the law and its administration were defective and needed to be changed. Three years ago a public lands commission was appointed to scrutinize the law and the facts and to recommend a remedy. Their examination specifically showed the existence of great frauds upon the public domain and their recommendations for changes in the law were made with the design of conserving the natural resources of every part of the public land by putting it to its best use. Attention was especially called to the prevention of settlement by the passage of great areas of public lands into the hands of a few men, and to the enormous waste caused by unrestricted grazing on the open range; a system of using the natural forage on the public domain which amounts to putting a premium on its destruction. Congress has not yet acted on these recommendations, except for the repeal of the iniquitous Henland law.

National Forests.

"In 1891 congress authorized the president to create national forests in the public domain. These forest reserves remained for a long time in charge of the general land office, which had no men properly trained in forestry. But another department, that of agriculture, possessed the trained men. In other words, the government forests were without foresters and the government foresters

Bloody Affray Near Yazoo.

Yazoo City, Miss., June 10.—Details of a bloody affray on the Kirk plantation, near here, were received this afternoon. Three negroes were killed, four white men shot and two negroes whipped. The country in that neighborhood is in arms and the sheriff, with deputies, is hastening there to prevent further bloodshed. The trouble broke out toward noon. T. D. Kirk went into a field on his plantation, where Aho Johnson and his three sons were at work, and gave them orders about their work. One of the negro boys cursed him, and Kirk, resulting the insult, knocked the negro down. Guns were secured and Kirk was wounded. White men collected and surrounded the Johnsons in their cabin and the shooting commenced.

CAIRO "PABSTS" WIN SUNDAY GAME

Score Four to Three in Exciting Contest at League Park

Locals Gave Away Game By Errors at Crucial Times and Lack of Hitting in Ninth.

SCORES OF THE BIG LEAGUES

The Egyptian Mudslingers accepted the game yesterday afternoon at Wallace park from the locals on a tray of errors. It was a case of "give away" on Paducah's part, but the fans were not discouraged. It's only one game, and there are yet many more to be played before the season is over.

The Mudslingers arrived in the early afternoon from Cairo on the city of Savannah, missing the morning train. Manager Hollan, of the locals, had advertised the game well, and thought Cairo was not coming. He notified his men, however, when Eddo Powers reported in town, and fully 400 fans were out to see the sport.

The game began at 3 o'clock and lasted the full nine innings, until 4:40 o'clock. Not an earned run was made, but the game was close and exciting from start to finish. For the locals good work was done by Block with the stick and with his wing and by Bergdoll with his fast fielding. Hits were scarce on both sides, but errors plentiful.

The lineup:

Pabsts—Warden, 1r; Powers, ss; French, 3b; Halliday, p; Vest, 1b; Hillburn, c; Morgan, 2b; Judy, cf; Stott, rf.

Paducah—Phinlee, cf; Hession, 2b; Peltz, 1b; Jones, ss; Bergdoll, lf; Hart, rf; Block, c; Davis, 3b; Arnold, p.

The score:

Pabsts	4	4	4
Paducah	3	5	5

Batteries—Halliday and Hillburn; Arnold and Block.

Paducah scored three in the sixth inning, while Cairo scored one in the second, one in the fifth and two in the ninth. Paducah's chances to score in the ninth were knocked in the head by weak batters in line for stick work.

FREIGHTS CRASH BEYOND MARION

Henry Blankey, of Evansville, Colored Brakeman, Hurt

Head-On Collision at Repton Destroys Property of Illinois Central Railroad.

ENGINEMEN JUMP FROM CABS.

A head-on collision of fast freight trains occurred at Repton, five and a half miles north of Marion, on the Illinois Central this morning at 3:05 o'clock. One man was injured, both engines were wrecked, and freight cars and much merchandise destroyed. The cause of the wreck is not determined, and an investigation will immediately be made. It is said that one crew overlooked its orders; while another report is that a stationman delivered the wrong orders.

Train, No. 355, with engine, No. 32, in charge of Engineman Powers and Conductor Hughes met train, No. 274, with engine, No. 29, in charge of Engineman Glenn and Conductor Long at a high rate of speed, and the track was blocked for hours by the debris and positions of the engines.

Engine, No. 32, of the southbound train, turned over, and engine, No. 39, was turned across the track. Freight cars were broken up and merchandise scattered about the track for many feet off the right of way.

At 4 o'clock an order for the Paducah wrecking crew was received, and at 5 o'clock the wrecker got away. A preferred order was given the train and the track cleared of everything but passenger trains in order that relief be secured at once.

There is no telegraph station at Repton, and an incomplete report of the damage done was received from the nearest station, Marion.

Henry Blankey, a colored brakeman, was caught as he started to jump, and fell. Both arms were broken, and he was badly bruised about the body.

When the enginemen saw the collision, was inevitable, they left their cabs with their firemen, and escaped with a few bruises and sprains. Both crews live in Evansville.

Conference at Chicago.

Master Mechanic R. E. Fulmer, of the local Illinois Central shops, was called to Chicago yesterday on important business, and it is intimated by local machinists that his visit to the Windy City is a direct result of a conference held last week by a committee of machinists from Paducah shops with officers of the mechanical department in Chicago relative to a foremanship in the local Illinois Central round house which was given to an engineer several weeks ago. It is claimed by machinists that the position rightfully belongs to a machinist and not an engineer.

Excursionists Left.

Three hundred and sixty visitors were brought into Paducah at 8 o'clock Sunday morning from St. Louis and Illinois via Brookport, and fully 100 were left in Paducah and had to take a roundabout course in returning. Sportsmen's league, of St. Louis, gave the excursion, an annual event and Wallace park was filled with strangers all day. At 5:15 o'clock the train left, and fifteen minutes later a car load of excursionists arrived at the station to find it gone. They were forced to take the Cairo train and go to Carbondale where the excursion train was caught. An order was given to take all excursionists to Cairo and then Carbondale on the Paducah accommodation train.

Brakenman's Head Crushed.

While making a coupling in the Princeton yards last night at 9 o'clock, Jim Scott, 36 years old, colored, an Illinois Central brakeman, was caught and his left hand crushed so badly that amputation was necessary. He was brought to the Illinois Central hospital this morning at 5 o'clock. He lives at Clarksville, Tenn.

An Angler's Elysium.

According to advertisements all summer resorts are alike. They are the best ever—but if fishing is better anywhere else than it is in "Georgian Bay" we do not know where it is. There is a greater variety of fish in this water than anywhere else, and they are always hungry. No one ever counted the fish in the Georgian Bay, but those that have been caught there have been counted and eaten, and if you read the government reports, on fisheries, you know that Georgian Bay supplies more fish than any other equal body of water in the world. The only place you can afford to fish is where the fish are numerous, big and delicious in flavor, and that place is Georgian Bay—so the fishermen say. Suppose you send for booklet, issued by Grand Trunk Railway System free, telling about the home of the bass, pickerel, pike and the noble trout family. Address W. Oldest Woman in the World

MRS. MARY MCGRATH, 110 YEARS OLD.

Mrs. Mary McGrath, of Brandon, Wis., who is 110 years of age and the oldest woman in the world, says that when she takes Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey she feels so well she can walk a mile.

Mrs. McGrath says she tried several other medicines, which did her harm and finally used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as prescribed solely, which restored her to health and prolonged her life.

"I take pleasure in writing to you what a wonderful medicine your Malt Whiskey is. I am never tired of praising it, for it has done me so much good. While I was taking it I could go out and walk a mile. I have taken so many other kinds of medicines since I have been sick, and instead of improving me they did me harm. I know what Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey does for me, and I want no other medicine." Yours, Mrs. MARY MCGRATH, Brandon, Wis., December 18th, 1906.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is recognized as the best tonic stimulant in the world for both young and old.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

distilled wholly from malted grain by a most expensive method which has never been made public and this private process gives it great medicinal value and insures quality and flavor. Its age, softness, palatability and freedom from those injurious substances found in other whiskeys make it acceptable to the most sensitive stomach.

It is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic. It acts as an antitoxin which destroys and drives out all disease germs, creates new nerve tissues, tones and strengthens the heart, gives power to the brain and elasticity to the muscles, enriches the blood and soothes and heals the mucous membranes. It brings into action all the vital forces. It makes digestion perfect, and enables you to get from the food you eat the nutriment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens the system, is a promoter of health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is a form of food already digested and is recognized as a medicine everywhere.

CAUTION—Sold by all druggists, grocers and dealers or direct, in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1. Insist on the genuine and see that the "Old Chemist" trade-mark is on the label and that the seal over the cork is unbroken. Beware of refilled bottles and spurious malt whiskey substitutes offered for sale by unreliable dealers. They are positively harmful and will not cure. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

ADmits MURDERING HIS AUNT.

Edward Bergmann and His Accomplice Held at St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 10.—Edward Bergmann, self-confessed slayer of Mrs. Kate Quernheim, his wealthy aunt was arrested this morning in Mitchell, Ill. Harry Muessemeyer, whom he implicates in the crime, is also in jail, having been arrested here today. When taken before Chief of Detectives Smith Bergmann confessed that he beat and kicked his aunt to death on March 7, and later ransacked the house, stealing several articles of small value. He was later taken before Judge Williams of the Criminal court, where he made a more complete confession, which was reduced to writing and which he signed. Bergmann says Muessemeyer started the attack, Bergmann is a former soldier. Mrs. Quernheim was the wife of a hardware merchant.

Torpedo Boat Worden Wins.
Norfolk, Va., June 10.—The torpedo boat destroyer, Worden, won the race of 250 miles from Scotland Light to Hampton Roads. The race was what the navy yard intended it to be—a test of endurance and a test of service. It came within an ace of being a most costly test, for the Hopkins suffered an accident that might have cost the lives of its entire crew of 70 men.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12th, 1907, AT 9 A. M.

When the mammoth $50,000 stock of Cloaks and Suits belonging to Levy will be placed on sale for ten days at 47 cents on the dollar.

The store is now closed and will remain closed until Wednesday, June 12, in order to re-mark and re-arrange the stock.

A Startling Announcement

NOTE OF EXPLANATION The unexpected sometimes happens. It has been a backward season, such as never before has been known of; we bought heavily of the finest makers of high class ladies' cloaks, suits, skirts and waists, whose goods has made the name of Levy's famous for miles and miles around Paducah for handling the most reliable and dependable cloaks, suits and skirts to be found in this section.

The creditors want their money; the bills must be paid, and in order to realize money quickly we will sacrifice the entire stock regardless of cost or value at an average of 47 cents on the dollar.

The most stupendous stock regulation and reduction sale that has ever been attempted in the trade history of Paducah and vicinity. Our strong call for turning this tremendous high grade stock into cash will give those not in the habit of buying fine suits, skirts or waists an opportunity.

Remember sale opens Wednesday, June 12th, and lasts 10 days only. A mighty money-saving sale for the benefit of the people! To accomplish the herculean task of converting into cash this immense amount of high class suits, skirts, waists, etc., in the 10 days from Wednesday, June 12th, profit will not be considered, and prices at an average of 47 cents on the dollar will prevail throughout the store.

We are determined to make a CLEAN SWEEP of the whole stock. Our entire stock at your disposal for 10 days at less than the cost of the making. The swellest hand tailored ladies' and misses' cloaks, suits, skirts, waists, etc. The reputation of this store should convince the most skeptical that every word published in this announcement is true, and that we will do exactly what we advertise. Daily Thought.

Be good if you can; but if you can't be good, be careful.

THE SITUATION.

The presidential situation is shaping mightily badly for the "ing-nates." The Parker fiasco and the last campaign has sickened Democracy of that sort of politics. Republican possibilities apparently can not be attracted away from such personalities as Roosevelt, Taft and Hughes.
Indeed, the signal success of the governor of New York, following individual lines, has seemingly blighted all hope of a reactionary candidate.Hughes has accomplished more reform legislation than any other man in the same length of time, according to the Chicago Tribune. His method of outwitting a policy, and then uncompromisingly forcing the legislative department and the people to assume their due responsibility has met with unequalled success without the use of executive patronage, the use of a bad means to a good end.His method is in sharp contrast to the spectacular, and often crude one of Roosevelt, but undoubtedly much of his success is due to the Roosevelt influence on public sentiment.
Roosevelt, Folk and Bryan have unwakened public morals to such a state that their successors have but to appeal to them to receive immediate response.Hughes now purposes a departmental investigation, election reforms and franchise taxes. He is making a record. Quiet, conservative, reserved in his manner and habits of thought, he is safe. Maybe Fairbanks' press bureau by constantly harping on the "Roosevelt policy" and a "conservative man" may make Hughes a strong factor in the situation. This is the greatest possibility in the Fairbanks propaganda.This condition of public sentiment, that invites the half-complimentary accusations of the southern Democratic press that Roosevelt is stealing "Bryan's thunder," that compels the unwilling co-operation of the New York legislature in Hughes' reforms; and that turns Ohio politicians to lick the hand of Taft, that smote them a year ago, is not accidental; but country wide. This sentiment will be the deciding factor in the national campaign. The result of the national Republican convention will settle in whose favor that sentiment will prevail.With prosperity continuing, with reforms undertaken in all directions and the presidential policies popular everywhere, the next campaign naturally should find its alignment on the issue of endorsing or repudi-ating the administration. It will be difficult for those who are accustomed to consider national politics from their personal viewpoint to find a satisfactory candidate to meet reactionary requirements. Knox, of Pennsylvania, may be chosen, as, at least, conservative; but Knox is no nominally, and the compelling influence of public opinion might set Philander Knox on a course calculated to arouse the alarmists.Our who men of the east are to learn that it is not alone Roosevelt and Rooseveltism they are contending against. There is behind Roosevelt that which makes his policies effective, popular approval, aggressive sentiment of the masses against which no man may stand.

Yet, withal, the great interests of the country extend no hope to Democracy in the crisis. Desiring to be left alone to their selfish devices, they prefer restricted prosperity to the disasters certain to attend the introduction of free trade, free silver and government ownership of railroads.The struggle must be in the Republican party, and what a plethora of material! Taft, Hughes, Knox, Root—What man of the Democrats compares in stature with one of these?If "elastic currency" bears any relation to the contraction in the purchasing power of a nickel, as measured in ice since the warm weather began, we begin to understand the subject.There's a decided change of tone at Washington in regard to the Japs.
Complaints that treaty rights were violated at San Francisco, because Japanese children were discriminated against in the schools, received prompt attention from the administration, as becomes one friendly power, jealous of its honor in respect to treaties with another. But now the Japanese press has assumed a bellicose attitude and querulous complaints that Japs are assaulted by mobs in San Francisco, a city in the throes of a labor riot, with its highest officials and police under indignity and chaos reigning in all departments of the municipal government. At the same time, it is said, Japs are sneaking across our borders by hundreds. Washington, no doubt, grows tired of the pettiness of the orientals, especially since Americans and all foreigners receive such scant recognition in the orient. The Japs have grown a trifle cocky over their defeat of Russia, and America's prompt response to their complaints.Must we fight this tariff fight all over again? Must we recall the free soup experience of more than a decade ago? Must we repeat the story of the European laborer, who gets 50 cents a day and rears his family on black bread, with meat once a week, with whom American laborers would have to compete, if the European products were brought into our ports free of duty? Must we point out again the ill clad, half starved and illiterate immigrant workmen running away by millions from free trade Europe to the protection of America? American manufacturers that have subjugated the world, were fostered under a protective tariff. From the time of the war of 1812, when our foreign commerce was cut off, we began to make our own goods. It has been the American policy. We shall hardly entrust revision of the tariff to men, who avowedly don't wish any tariff at all.At any rate, the president of the Philadelphia & Reading is not a Teddy Bear.Mrs. Howard Gould is wanting $250,000 a year alimony. Both of them seem to have been leading wanton lives up to this time. Howard says he don't care if she continues wanton.Many a serious thing is said in jest. Sometimes the most serious consequences follow a joke. Once in a while we Americans take our humor seriously after the manner of the British. Certainly, we must give the humorists credit for the latest crusade of the Interstate commerce commission, against the Pullman car rates. Every change has been rung on the comic experiences of passengers in the upper berth. Vernaculars, cartoonists and jokesmiths have vied with each other, until, at last, the government has taken up the question of rates. It may be some official has laid for three hours in an upper berth in a train shed on a summer's night before reading the jokes.Let all epilepsies take heed, "Dandy Jim" is dead. "Dandy Jim" was a dog whose mistress, the late, lamented Ellen Ann Griffin, spinster, allowed her errant affections to stray from their natural inclination to cats and parrots and settle on this unfortunate canine and cut short his promising career before its time."Too fat to breathe," was the last word of the veterinarian; for finally after a year of almost human prolongation, "Dandy Jim" got sick as dogs do and the regular kind of doctor could do him no good."Dandy Jim" was a good dog, until his mistress died and left him $10,000. Then he lived like a Pittsburg millionaire. Chicken and mayonnaise and salmon, champagne lapped up from a dish and lack of exercise combined to wreck a constitution that would have thrived on corn cake and bones of beef in the hack yard.There's a moral in this tale somewhere. Perhaps some epigrammatist may put in our mouths the words our thoughts would be moulded into.It may be "You can't make a duke out of a dog," or, maybe, it may turn on the idea that boasts are abstentions according to their kind, until man—white man—teaches them the wickedness Adam learned when Eve gave him the apple.Isn't our respect for the Internal organism of the human species heightened by contemplation of the fact, that the stuff we gorge ourselves with daily killed a dog?Well, any combination of involving an Adam and an Orchard is bound to spell death for somebody.

ANCIENT GAME

SOMETHING OF ORIGIN OF THE NATIONAL SPORT.Baseball Annals Are Always Interesting to Fans—History and Development.Real baseball is over sixty-one years old. But the origin of the "national game" is more in dispute than the etymology of the term "fan."The veteran journalist, Henry Chadwick, popularly known as the "father of baseball," who is English-born, contends that baseball, while an American sport, had its origin in the game played by the English schoolboy called "founders." "The basic principle of both games," Mr. Chadwick argues, "is the use of a bat, a ball and bases." But it is a short bat and a soft ball, and the player, on hitting the ball, endeavors to make a circuit—a round—of all the bases—in our vocabulary, a home run. As a clincher, Mr. Chadwick says that, when debating the question with Albert G. Spalding, there entered the room a devotee of sport, Andrew Peck, whose name, coupled with that of his partner, Snyder, was known to most American boys of twenty years ago in connection with a popular style of ice skates."When did you begin to play baseball?" inquired Mr. Spalding."In the latter part of the forties," replied Mr. Peck, "about 1847 or 1848."

"What was the game called then?"

"Why, 'rounders,'" said Mr.
Peck.But to this day, Mr. Spalding, proud Yankee to the core, is uncon-vinced. Undoubtedly the foreign taint in baseball bothered him not a little for a time, but he disposed of it to his satisfaction in the spring of 1859, when he visited Liverpool, after a tour of the British colonies, with the Chicago and All-American baseball teams. Throughout the trip English subjects had chided him with the antecedent of the American national game, so he issued a challenge to the champion rounder club of Great Britain, which was promptly accepted. By the terms of the agreement the British champions were to play a one-inning rounder match (two innings make a full game) with a team of eleven men picked from the American "baseballers," as the Englishmen called them, and then there was to be a five-inning game of baseball. As "feeder" (pitcher) for his "eleven," Mr. Spalding was given a leather-covered sphere about the size of a golf ball and rather soft. The rounder batsman faced him with a miniature cricket bat—"a cross between a potato masherand a penholder." A big ball was "fouled"—as the Yankees called it —but the referee declared it a fair hit, and as the batter made a circuit of the four boundary posts before the ball was recovered, he scored four runs. The next batsman repeated the trick, and there was a total of eight runs to the credit of the Englishmen. Then, "Feeder" Spalding resorted to low balls close to the batsman's body, and only three more runs were made before the eleven British champions were put out, and the inning was over. These last runs resulted from the failure of an American to hit one of the champions with the ball, as the rules permit.In their half of the inning, the Yankees were inclined at first to try to "line out" the ball, and the results were disastrous. But soon they got the hang of batting with one hand, and scored eight runs before the eleven men were retired. This left them three runs behind.The baseball game was an entirely different story. Three Englishmen struck out, and then the Americans went to bat. Thirty-five men crossed the plate, and still the side had not been retired. Because of physical exhaustion both teams were content that the match be declared off. Thus the first inning in the base ball game was never finished; yet the score stood 35 to 0 in favor of the Americans.—Success.

HAMMOCKS

NOAH'S ARK

In hammocks we have made special preparations for the summer trade this season and have a line of which any dealer might be proud. Though our hammocks cost less than you are usually asked to pay, you will find no better qualities anywhere than at Noah's Ark.

For $3 we have a variety of handsome patterns and substantial weaves, full size—values which can not be equalled any place in the city for the money.
If you want a little better one, we have a beauty for $3.25. And for $4.25 we have a hammock which is the equal of any $8 hammock in Paducah. It's large and roomy, with a comfortable pillow. The fabric is heavy and closely woven and the colors are as near weather proof as it is possible to make them. Other good ones for 90c, $1.25, $2.25 and $2.50.

Most any time now a hammock is apt to prove the most comfortable place about the house. By all means come to Noah's Ark before you buy, for if you don't we both lose money.

NO AFFILIATION.
Manager H. J. Jeffery, of Home Company, Back From Chicago.

H. J. Jeffery, manager of the Home Telephone company in this city, has returned from Chicago where he attended the convention of the International Independent Telephone association, for three days. At this convention the American Bell Telephone company, which controls the instruments used by the companies not in the independent association, made overtures to the independent companies with the view of eliminating competition. The war between the Bell company and the independent companies has been bitter and is now being fought south of the Ohio river, where the Bell has been supreme.

Every proposition made by the Bell interests was rejected. One of the proposed measures to relieve the stress of competition, was that the Bell company should abandon the local fields to the independent companies, if the toll lines were turned over to it. Other propositions were to take over equipment and capital stocks.

Statistics compiled show that, contrary to the accepted ideas of economists, competition in the telephone field is as advantageous as in any other field. In such cities as Louisville, Cleveland and others, the competition brought out more subscribers at a less cost.

BOYS WHO KILLED TO AVERAGE DOG GET 4 YEARS.
Chandler, Okla., June 10.—Luko Flowers and Will Gray, negro boys, were sentenced yesterday by Judge Hurford to serve four years in prison for killing Russell Loke, a white boy, last summer, because Loke killed the Flowers boys' dog. Castellane Disgraced.
Paris, June 10.—The court of appeals today granted the appeal of Count Boni de Castellane and his creditors against the verdict for divorce granted Madame Gould. Bonds former wife, and a new hearing before the higher judges ordered.

A full dozen defendants charged with crap shooting were presented before Police Judge D. A. Cross this morning in police court and half of them fined. Those fined: Bud Elrod, J. E. Johnson, Claude Whittear, Charles Johnson, Liebran Price and Moore Taylor.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

The Aches and Pains Will Disappear If the Advice of This Paducah Citizen is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains.

Most times 'tis the kidneys' fault. Backache is really kidney ache.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Many Paducah women know this. Read what one has to say about it.

Mrs. R. E. Whitner, of 820 South Sixth street, Paducah, Ky., says:

"For years I have been a sufferer from backache and kidney trouble. At times my back has been so lame that I was unable to get around my house on account of the severe pain across the small of my back and left side. I doctored but received very little benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at DuBou's, Son & Co.'s drug store.

I took them as directed and the results have been very satisfactory. I certainly believe that I would have been at least confined to my bed at this time had it not been for Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

The Magic No. 8. Number three is a wonderful mascot for Geo. H. Harris, of Cedar Grove, Mo., according to a letter which reads:

"After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by the failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man today. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best remedy for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists 50c.

NEEDED ANOTHER MAN.

The exceedingly Democratic son of a leading dry goods merchant on Broadway was recently playing ball all by himself in the yard of his home. A small colored boy who happened along was cordially invited to play with him. Soon a rather "tattered and torn" white archer stopped to look on, and was asked to make a third and eagerly accepted. Circuit Judge William Reed came by about this time and was fraternally accosted by the small host who is no respecter of persons. "Hello, Judge Reed, we need another man, can't you come in and take a hand?" All the boy in the big judge was aroused at once and he at once made the needed fourth in the great American game.

DON'T! Don't let your child suffer with that cough when you can cure it with Hall's Horchound Syrup, a sure cure for Croup, Bronchitis, Influenza, Croup and Pulmonary Diseases. Buy a bottle and try it. It is the best.

Evadine, Miss. writes: "I have two children who had croup. I tried many different remedies, but I must say your Horchound Syrup is the best Croup and Cough medicine I ever used."

Sold by all druggists.

It is comforting to know that the contentions of the sects have no effect on real religion.

For several years we have been doing everything in our power to prevent fraud upon the public land. What can be done under the present laws is now being done through the joint action of the interior department and the department of justice. But fail to accomplish the prevention of fraud there is need of further legislation and especially of a sufficient appropriation to permit the department of the interior to examine certain classes of entries on the ground before they pass into private ownership.

Our Waterways. The inability of the railroads of the United States to meet the demands upon them has drawn public attention forcibly to the use of our waterways for transportation. But it is obvious that this is only one of their many uses, and that a planned and orderly development is impossible except by taking into account all the services they are capable of rendering. It was upon this ground that the inland waterways commission was recently appointed. Their duty is to propose a comprehensive plan for the improvement and utilization of those great waterways which are the great potential highways of the country. Their duty is also to bring together the points of view of all users of streams, and to submit a general plan for the development and conservation of the vast natural resources of the waterways of the United States.

Clearly it is impossible for the waterways commission to accomplish its great task without considering the relations of streams to the conservation and use of all other natural resources, and I have asked that it do so. Here, then, for the first time, the orderly development and planned conservative use of all our natural resources is presented as a single problem.

One by one the individual tasks in this great problem have already been undertaken. One by one in practical fashion the methods of dealing with them were worked out. National irrigation has proved itself a success by its actual working. Again, actual experience has shown that the national forests will fulfill the larger purpose for which they were created. All who have thoughtfully studied the subject have come to see that the solution of the public lands question lies with the home maker, with the settler who lives on his land, and that government control of the mineral fuels and the public grazing lands is necessary and inevitable. Each of these conclusions represented a movement of vast importance which would confer large benefits upon the nation, but which stood by itself. They are connected together into one great fundamental problem—that of the conservation of all our natural resources. Upon the wise solution of this much of our future obviously depends. Even such questions as the regulation of railway rates and the control of corporations are in reality subsidiary to the primal problem of the preservation in the interests of the whole people of the resources that nature has given us. If we fail to solve this problem, no skill in solving the others will in the end avail us very greatly.

Taxation. Now as to the matter of taxation. Most great civilized countries have an income tax and an inheritance tax. In my judgment both should be part of our system of federal taxation. I speak diffidently about the income tax because one scheme for an income tax was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court by a five to four vote; and in addition it is a difficult task to administer in its practical workings, and great care would have to be exercised to see that it was not evaded by the very man whom it is most desirable to have taxed, for if so evaded it would of course be worse than to tax at all, as the least desirable of all taxes is the tax which bears heavily upon the honest as compared with the dishonest man. Nevertheless, a graduated income tax of the proper type would be a desirable permanent feature of federal taxation, and I still hope that one may be devised which the supreme court will declare constitutional.

In my judgment, however, the inheritance tax is both a far better method of taxation, and far more important for the purpose I have in view—the purpose of having the swollen fortunes of the country bear in proportion to their size a constantly increasing burden of taxation. These fortunes exist solely because of the protection given the owners by the public. They are a constant source of care and anxiety to the public and it is eminently just that they should be forced to pay heavily for the protection given them. It is, of course, absolutely right to decide as to the terms upon which any man shall receive a bequest or devise from another. We have repeatedly placed such laws on our own statute books, and they have repeatedly been declared constitutional by the courts. I believe that the tax should contain the progressive principle. Whatever any individual receives, whether by gift, bequest, or devise, in life or in death, should, after a certain amount is reached, be increasingly burdened; and the rate of taxation should be increased in proportion to the remoteness of blood of the man receiving from the man giving or devising. The principle of this progressive taxation of inheritances has not only been authoritatively recognized by the legislation of congress, but it is now unequivocally adopted in the leading civilized nations of the world—in, for instance, Great Britain, France and Germany. In Great Britain all estates worth five thousand dollars or less are practically exempt from death duties, while the increase is such that when an estate exceeds five millions of dollars in without forests. Waste of effort, and waste of forests inevitably followed. Finally the situation was ended in 1905 by the creation of the United States forest service, which has stopped the waste, conserved the resources of the national forests, and made them useful; so that our forests are now being managed on a coherent plan, and in a way that augurs well for the future.

Mineral Fuels. The mineral fuels of the eastern United States have already passed into the hands of large private owners, and those of the west are rapidly following. This should not be, for such mineral resources belong in a peculiar degree to the whole people. Under private control there is much waste from shortsighted methods of working, and the complete utilization is often sacrificed for a greater immediate profit. The mineral fuels under our present conditions are as essential to our prosperity as the forests will always be. The difference is that the supply is definitely limited, for coal does not grow and trees do. It is obvious that the mineral fuels should be conserved, not wasted, and that enough of them should remain in the hands of the government to protect the people against unjust or extortionate prices for as that can still be done. What has been accomplished in the regulation of the great oil fields of the Indian Territory offers a striking example of the good results of such a policy. Last summer, accordingly, I withdrew most of the coal-bearing public lands temporarily from disposal, and asked for the legislation necessary to protect the public interest by the conservation of the mineral fuels; that is, for the power to keep the fee in the government and to lease the coal, oil, and gas rights under proper regulation. No such legislation was passed, but I still hope that we shall ultimately get it.

Public Domain. In addition to treating aright for the benefit of the whole people the forests and the mineral beds, we should similarly try to preserve for the benefit of all the people the great stretches of public domain, some three hundred million acres in all, which are unfit for cultivation by present methods and valuable only for the forage which they supply. This vast area is now open to the free grazing of cattle, sheep, horses, and goats, without restriction or regulation. When population has increased, as it now the case, such utter lack of management means that the public domain is turned over to be skinned by men whose only concern is to get what they can out of it at the moment, without any regard to whether or not it is ruined so far as the next generation is concerned. In other words, the range is not so much used as wasted by abuse; and as an incident conflict and bloodshed frequently arise between opposing users. With the rapid settling of the west the range is more and more overgrazed. Moreover, much of it can not be used to advantage unless it is fenced, for fencing is the only way by which to keep in check the absentee owners of nomad flocks which roam hither and thither, utterly destroying the pasturage and leaving a waste behind, so that their presence is incompatible with the presence of home-makers. Good judges estimate that our public range has now lost nearly half its value, yet fencing is against the law, and as the law now stands, it is well-nigh impossible to do anything to keep the value of the range. The only practical remedy is to give control of the range to the federal government. Such control would not only stop all conflict but would conserve the forage without stopping its use, as our experience with the national forests has fully proved.

For several years we have been doing everything in our power to prevent fraud upon the public land. What can be done under the present laws is now being done through the joint action of the interior department and the department of justice. But fail to accomplish the prevention of fraud there is need of further legislation and especially of a sufficient appropriation to permit the department of the interior to examine certain classes of entries on the ground before they pass into private ownership.

In Great Britain all estates worth five thousand dollars or less are practically exempt from death duties, while the increase is such that when an estate exceeds five millions of dollars in value and passes to a distant kinsman or stranger in blood the government receives nearly 15 per cent. The German law is of special interest, because it makes the inheritance tax an imperial measure, while allotting to the individual states of the empire a portion of the proceeds and permitting them to impose taxes in addition to those imposed by the imperial government. In the United States the national government has more than once imposed inheritance taxes in addition to those imposed by the states, and in the last instance about one-half of the states levied such taxes concurrently with the national government, making a combined maximum rate, in some cases as high as 25 per cent. The French law has one feature which is to be heartily commended. The progressive principle is imposed only on the excess above the amount subject to the next lower rate. This plan is peculiarly adapted to the working out of the theory of equalizing the inheritance tax for the purpose of limiting the size of inheritances, since the progressive increase in the rates, according to this mode, may be carried to its logical conclusion in a maximum rate of nearly one hundred per cent for the amount in excess of a specified sum.

Such a heavy progressive tax is of course in no shape or way a tax on thrift or industry, for thrift and industry have ceased to possess any measurable importance in the accumulation of the swollen fortunes of which I speak long before the tax feature which is to be heartily commended.
